391-5-9-.08      Compensation for Deadhead Logs

391-5-9-.08 Consideration (Compensation) for Deadhead Logs.

(1) The holder of a Salvage Log Permit shall pay the Department compensation of $1.28 per board foot for deadhead logs removed from the State's rivers as authorized by the Official Code of Georgia Annotated, Title 12, Chapter 3 and any other law, rule, regulation or policy that authorizes this activity.

(2) The amount of board feet in a recovered log will be determined using the Scribner C log scale, or by another method determined by the Georgia Forestry Commission. Log scaling will be done by Department personnel or their designee.

(3) Violation of this rule or any other law, rule, regulation or policy may result in revocation of the permit or license to harvest deadhead logs, and may result in additional fines or penalties authorized by any other law, rule, regulation or policy.

(4) All other procedures for determining the amount due for deadhead logs, methods and time of payment, late fees, and related procedures will be specified by the Department.
